SUPERVISOR HAAS INVITES NEIGHBORS TO HELP PLAN FUTURE OF COPERNICUS PARK Work is Underway on a New Master Plan

Supervisor Jason Haas is inviting neighbors and people who use Copernicus Park to take part in a public workshop to design a new plan for the park. Supervisor Haas has played an active role with the Milwaukee County Parks Department in making some very positive changes to this area. This is a joint effort with the City of Milwaukee, and it begins with this hands-on workshop.

“Copernicus Park is a hidden gem in the South Side,” Supervisor Haas said, “and I would love to see it blossom into something we can all be very proud of. That process begins by getting as much input from the public as possible.”

What: Copernicus Park Master Plan Public Workshop

Date: Wednesday, August 13th

Time: 6:30 P.M.

Location: Cooper Park School, 5143 S. 21st Street
